

LUNDS UNIVERSITET

Agreement on electronic publication of student papers.

Title of paper: _____

_____

Date: _____

Department: _____

Name of student: _____

Social security number: _____

The student gives Lund University the right to make the paper available to the public for the period of time the university chooses by publishing the paper in a database with so called open access on a server belonging to Lund University.

The student has the right to reproduce the paper and make the paper available to the public at the same time without restriction.

The student affirms:

- that the student alone is the author of the paper
- that the paper, as far as the student knows, does not contain anything which infringes someone else's copyright
- that the student has the right to transfer to Lund University the rights included in this agreement.

The student is aware of the fact that Lund University might take the measures which the university deems necessary to control the student's copyright.

The university will immediately cease the publication of the paper and take necessary measures in order to limit the distribution, if it comes to light that the student is not the author of the paper, or that anything in the paper infringes someone else's copyright.
