

The Ascent of Community and Activist Media: Theorising the turn to counter-power media and communication

ICA Post-Conference & IAMCR Pre-Conference

Tuesday, 25 June 2024

Griffith University Gold Coast Campus, Room TBC

PROGRAM GUIDE

9.30am – 10am	Refreshments on arrival
10am – 10:15am	Acknowledgement of Country, Opening remarks – Prof Susan Forde, Griffith University
10:15am – 11:35am	THE LATE BREAKFAST SHOW: Decolonial activism and media
Continuities and Change in Feminist, Queer and Indigenous Activist Media in San Francisco	Dorothy Kidd, University of San Francisco
Inclusive Activism in a Depopulated Local Community: Case Study of “Ma Shima-Shima” in Japan	Tomoko Kanayama, Institute of Advanced Media Arts and Sciences
'We need to show the kids that we are here, and our culture remains strong': How Australian Indigenous broadcasting navigates old and new media worlds	Susan Forde, Harry Van Issum, Debbie Bargallie, Troy Meston, Heather Anderson, Susan de Groot Heupner, Griffith University
Community radio for promoting digital inclusion of Indigenous community people: Evidence from marginalized communities of rural Bangladesh	Md Mamun Abdul Kaioum, Queensland University of Technology

11:45am – 12:50pm		MORNINGS WITH...: Reclaiming memory and narrative
"Tell the world about us": the radical potential of witnessing/remembering		Andrew Ó Baoill, University of Galway
War Influencers: Agency, Digital Memory, & Emergent Narrative Authority Online		Natasha Williams, University of Pennsylvania
Weaving knowledge together: The micropolitics of 'encounters' in community journalism		Bissie Anderson, Robert Gordon University, Aberdeen
12:50pm – 1.45pm		Lunch
1:45pm – 2:50pm		LATE LUNCH: Counter-hegemonic interventions
Feminist fractures: Locating 'her stories' in the history of Australian community broadcasting		Heather Anderson, Griffith University Bridget Backhaus, Griffith University
Unsettling Patterns of Habituated Listening in Student Oral History Podcasts		Anjuli Joshi Brekke, University of Wisconsin-Parkside
Women's Rights Movements in Pakistan and their Impact on Reshaping Gender Norms and Challenging Patriarchal Hegemony: A case study of "The Aurat March"		Shahbaz Aslam, University of Central Punjab
3pm – 4:05pm		DRIVE TIME: Creating and sustaining counter-power spaces
Moving beyond Mediatized Activism for Social Justice: Creating Visual Safe/Brave Spaces for Activists		Ilkin Mehrabov, Lund University
Resistance and resilience in tough times: Imaging queer futures in China		Yang Yu, Independent researcher (online)
'Creating our Seat at the Table' – Analyzing the epistemic formation of counterpublics in the Instagram series Sitzplatzreservierung		Ana-Nzinga Weiß, Freie Universität Berlin (online)

4:10pm – 4:30pm

END OF BROADCAST: Closing remarks

4:30pm – 6pm

Networking and refreshments